Fun and Games

I can walk on this,
If it's wet or dry.
I can put it in a pail,
And make a pie.
If I hold it in my hands,
It will trickle through.
I can find it at the seaside,
And so can you.

Judy's Shop

She sells sea shells,
On the seashore.
The shells she sells,
Are sea shells, I'm sure.

A tongue twister. Say it very fast!

Ship Ahoy!

When I was one, I threw my mum,
Over the Irish Sea.

She landed on a pirate ship,
And the pirate said to me,

"We'll go this way, that way,
                    backwards, forwards,
Over the Irish Sea.

With a bottle of rum,
To warm my tum,
That's the life for me."

An action rhyme sung to 'Polly Wolly Doodle'. (Verse). Clap with a partner for lines 1 to 4 and then sway left, right, backwards, forwards and rub tummy. Next verse "When I was two ...." with a suitable rhyme.

Rock Pools

One, two, three, four, five,
Once I caught a fish alive.
Six, seven, eight, nine, ten,
Then I let it go again.

Why did you let it go?
Because it bit my finger so.
Which finger did it bite?
This little finger on the right.

Punch & Judy

Punch and Judy

Mr Punch's riddle.

"What gets bigger the more you take away?"

Answer: A hole in the sand.
